UWB Graduate Programs

The University of Washington Bothell (UWB) Graduate Resource and Development (GRAD) Council is committed to enhancing graduate education and building graduate community on the UW Bothell campus. Please visit the UWB Graduate Programs website to learn more information.

Student Counseling Center

To schedule an appointment call (425) 352- 3183 or visit <http://www.bothell.washington.edu/studentaffairs/counseling>

FUNDING YOUR EDUCATION

UWB Campus Resources

UW Bothell provides different opportunities and resources that are available online or on campus that can help fund graduate student's education. Visit www.uwb.edu/graduate/funding-resources to learn more.

Graduate Funding Information Services

GFIS helps UW students identify and seek out different sources and opportunities to fund their education, scholarship and travel. Be sure to visit www.lib.washington.edu/commons/services/gfis for hours of operations and different funding opportunities.

Fellowships & Awards

Fellowships and Awards assist students by listing upcoming award deadlines and providing administrative application support. See the calendar of fellowship deadlines and information on some well-known funding opportunities at <http://grad.uw.edu/students/fa/calendar.shtml>

CROSS CAMPUS OPPORTUNITIES

UW Graduate Opportunities & Minority Achievement Program (GO-MAP)

GO-MAP serves underrepresented minority graduate students across all campuses. For more opportunities to network with students of color, or to learn more about the program, visit <https://grad.uw.edu/diversity/go-map/>. You may also visit the campus archive page to keep updated about the upcoming events that are being held across all three UW campuses.

UW Core Programs

Core Programs, under the Office of Student Affairs in UW Graduate School, supports the success of Graduate Students with referrals to tri-campus resources and by offering services and programming that can help students thrive in their graduate education programs. Visit us online at grad.uw.edu/core-programs or on Facebook at Core Programs at UW.
