Creating your UW NetID

UW NetID stands for University of Washington Net IDentification. Your UW NetID and password are your account for accessing your UW information and other online services. If you do not already have a UW NetID, you can obtain one by going to the UW NetID site. You will need to use the private access code (PAC) and student number to obtain your UW NetID.

AEP Requirement

You are currently required to enroll in English language courses while at the University of Washington. If you have earned an eligible degree to demonstrate English proficiency, the Graduate School will remove this requirement after they have received documentation. See Graduate School Memo # and the English Language Program's Website for further information.
If a degree is received abroad, what constitutes an official transcript & degree statement?

Documents are considered “official” if:
• Received directly by GEMS from the issuing institution via postal mail
• Includes an official transcript
• Includes an official degree statement (date + title of degree awarded)

>>There is discussion in GEMS about the possibility of accepting transcripts via an approved electronic means in the future. Currently we are unable to accept electronic transcripts.<<

If your students require further information to complete this requirement, please refer them to our FAQ located at: http://www.grad.washington.edu/admissions/faq/international.shtml#Question14
If a degree is received in the US or Canada, GEMS must receive an official transcript with degree posted, directly from the Registrar of the issuing institution via postal mail.

Other ways a student can complete the degree verification requirement:

✓ If the degree was earned abroad, and the student is issued only one set of transcripts and cannot receive additional official copies, the student can make copies of all original transcript records & degree statements, including English translations, then bring both the originals & copies to GEMS for verification.

✓ The student can also drop off an official degree transcript in a sealed envelope to GEMS for verification (G-1 Communications Building).
Q: Is there an English proficiency requirement that needs to be met?

A: Every applicant whose native language is not English must demonstrate English language proficiency.

Q: My student is not a native English speaker. How can the English requirement be completed?

A: Refer to Memo 8.
http://www.grad.washington.edu/policies/memoranda/memo08.shtml
Q: Did my admitted student complete the English requirement?
A: What does your student’s Next Steps (Status) Page Say?

Q: I thought my student had already met the requirements with the TOEFL. Why is there an AEP requirement?
B: Did your student submit “official” TOEFL scores? In MGP, go through the Graduate Applicant Detail > “Tests” link to check.
Q: My student has an English-medium degree from the UK that should meet Memo 8 Requirements. But why is there still an “AEP Requirement” listed on Next Steps/Status Page?

A: Your student needs to send that English-medium transcript and degree statement to GEMS for verification. Then AEP requirements can be removed.

Request the institution(s) listed below to mail an official final degree transcript (with degree posted) directly to the Graduate School at one of the addresses listed below. Your degree will be verified prior to your first quarter enrollment.

Mail transcripts to:
Q: What will my student’s UW I-20 say about his or her English proficiency?

A1: For international students, if the English proficiency requirement is not met, GEMS is required to indicate that English instructions are necessary on the I-20 student visa application form. Therefore, GPAs should assure this requirement is completed before making an offer of admissions to the applicant.

A2: Special Note: If the student will earn a degree awarded by the UW or other US college before graduate enrollment, GEMS will indicate the student has met English proficiency requirements on the I-20, even if the student has not yet submitted the transcript.

This is because GEMS will be able to verify the conferral of the degree before the enrollment cycle, and we do not want to create challenges for students travelling to their home countries before returning to the US to begin their new UW graduate program.
In order for an international student to receive their visa documents, they need to demonstrate sufficient funds to support their graduate education. GEMS indicates the costs for the first year of study on the UW I-20 student visa application.

Refer to the financial ability requirement website:
http://www.grad.washington.edu/admissions/finability.shtml

If a student is receiving any type of financial support from your program, please enter the funding into MyGradProgram by going to Graduate Applicant Detail Page > Funding Info Tab. In addition, please send your student a formal letter of financial support for their visa interview.

When an applicant has decided to attend the University of Washington, they should access the I-20 request form in their Next Steps Page:
